CHAT PEOPLE AND EVENTS

The Social Calendar.

The promise of much that speaks of gaiety and charm is found in the social calendar of the week, which has already brought pleasant events.
On Monday evening there was a merry skating party at the Galey Rink, a pleasure planned in honor of the visitors and shared by seventeen couples; the same night was also marked by a dance given by the younger set at the Choctaw Club rooms. Other occasions to have conspicuous place in the record of mid-June are: Wednesday evening—cotillion given by Miss Hardy in compliment to Miss Benbow of Greensboro, N. C., and Miss Harris of Montgomery; Thursday evening—dance at the Choctaw Club; Friday afternoon, Mrs. Simrall entertains at cards.

The opening of the normal will restore life and activity to the college and its campus, about which there has been such a deserted air since the leave-taking of the girls in blue. Columbians will be glad to know that Mrs. J. H. Phillips of Birmingham will again be a member of the faculty. She is a woman of charming personality, and has met with unusual success. Her lectures last summer were delightful and were enjoyed by the general public as well as by the teachers assembled for the summer course of study.

Miss Frances Dunn's many friends are delighted to welcome her to Columbus again. Miss Dunn and her brother, Evans, arrived on Saturday from Birmingham, and will spend the week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dash-field. Mr. and Mrs. Evans J. Dunn are in Lexington, Va., to attend the commencement of Washington and Lee University, from which institution their oldest son, Mr. William Dunn, will be graduated this session.

Mrs. Witherspoon left yesterday for Montague to remain until September. Mr. W. W. Topp, formerly of this city, now of Mobile, will join her at this favorite Southern resort.

Miss Bettie Whitfield is added to the number of Columbians who have summer homes there, and has recently erected a pretty rustic cottage just outside of the assembly grounds.

It will be a pleasure to welcome as a permanent resident Mrs. Boaz Whitfield of Demopolis, who has decided to make her home here with her son, Mr. Galus Whitfield, Jr.
Mrs. Whitfield has rented the Goodwin house on Second street, but will not come to Columbus until the autumn.

Miss Rosalie Helsey, of the college department of music, left last Wednesday for Birmingham to the guest of Miss Edith Lodge before to Dayton, Ohio. Miss Etta Atwell, also of the I. I. and C. faculty, will visit Miss Helsey during the summer.

Miss Lizzette Neilson left yesterday for Starkville, where she will direct the primary work at the A. and M.
College normal. Later Miss Neilson will go to Virginia to visit Mr. and Mrs. Cabell Woods and enjoy the Jamestown exposition.

Miss Kate Albright arrived Saturday after a year's absence in Arizona, where she has been successfully engaged in school work. Her friends will be pleased to learn that she will probably not return to the West.

Miss S. J. Smith, mistress of English at the high school, returned on Tuesday to her home in Charlottesville, Va., where she will spend the vacation.

Little Miss Sallie Baugh leaves on Thursday for Montgomery, Ala., to visit relatives. Afterward she will spend several weeks in Macon, Ga.

Mr. Carleton Billups has returned from New York, where he has been with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Richards since the Bingham School commencement.

Mrs. Richard K. Hines of Macon, Ga., and Mrs. B. H. McFarland, who have been the guests of Mrs. W. W.
Humphries, returned to Aberdeen on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. Sherman left Sunday for a brief visit to Aberdeen. Upon her return she will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Bowen.

Miss Bradford, of the Birmingham public schools, is in the city as a member of the summer normal faculty of the I. I. and C. row for Aberdeen to join Mr. Watson and visit several towns in the State.

Mr. R. A. Carson has returned from a trip through the South in the interest of the lyceum bureau.

Capt. Ephraim G. Peyton is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Coleman at Greenwood.

Mrs. C. E. Gay of Starkville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Scales.

Three Dead as Result of Riot.
Memphis, Tenn., June 10.—A special to the Commercial Appeal from Yazoo City, Miss., John Sharp Williams' home town, says:

As a result of a racial clash near here late Sunday, three negroes are dead, two others severely whipped, and four white men wounded.

The trouble originated when T. D.
Kirk, a plantation owner, approached a group of negro tenants to instruct them relative to some field work.
This angered the negroes, and one of them, Abe Johnson, cursed Kirk, who because of the number of his antagonists and being unarmed, retreated toward his home to secure a weapon.
Johnson and his three sons proceeded to their cabin on a like mission, and before Kirk reached his home he was overtaken and fired on by one of the younger negroes. Attracted by the shooting, two of Kirk's brothers and T. F. Cheatham ran to his assistance and were fired on and wounded. They returned the fire, killing Green Johnson, one of their opponents.

The Johnsons then barricaded themselves in their home and defied arrest. The house was surrounded and protection offered them should they surrender. On their refusal the building was attacked, two of the negroes killed and two others severely whipped.

Late advices from the scene of the trouble state that everything is now quiet and no further trouble is anticipated. The Kirk brothers and Mr.
Cheatham, while their wounds are severe, it is believed, will recover.

Bloody Tragedy at Biloxi.

On last Saturday Capt. Jno. Walker, president of the Bank of Biloxi at Biloxi, shot and killed both his wife and himself. The tragedy occurred at Capt. Walker's home early in the afternoon, and resulted from a dispute over domestic affairs. Several shots were heard by the neighbors, and upon rushing to the Walker home they found the man and his wife lying side by side, stone dead.
Capt. Walker was seventy-three years of age, and had been president of the Bank of Biloxi for a number of years.
He was universally esteemed and respected, and had held numerous positions of honor and trust, having at one time been mayor of the city.

He Got Even

"I got even with the gas company in good shape this month," remarked a Columbus citizen to a farmer friend this week. "My gas bill last month for cooking and light was $3.50 and I made up my mind I would not put up with that robbery any longer, so I purchased a wood cook stove and burned kerosene mostly this month. My gas bill is only fifty cents this time," chuckled the aforesaid citizen as he handed his farmer friend a $5 bill to pay for the wood he had used to cook with during the month.
"A man must use his brains now-days to save money." As the farmer pocketed the five-spot and drove off he was observed to be laughing softly to himself. Now as each of these men appeared to be pleased there must have been a joke on one of them. Wonder on whom?
